PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, freedom from disease is one of the great goals of mankind; and

WHEREAS, cancer is the second greatest cause of death in these United States; and

WHEREAS, the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer has as its objective the control of cancer by teaching everyone the early signs of this disease, to the end that individuals it strikes may seek effective treatment while cure is still possible; and

WHEREAS, the Women's Field Army will conduct during April their eighth annual campaign to call the attention of the public to these facts and to enlist new members in their work:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M Q SHARPE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby set aside the period of April 1 to April 30, 1944, as in South Dakota, and commend the campaign of the Women's Field Army as worthy of public support.

CANCER CONTROL MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this 15th day of March 1944.

M Q Sharpe
Governor of South Dakota
